Orée · fictional post-show example

€1,420, no VAT. One range, one language, up to three types of incoming request and one approved selection. One written approval, a reply matrix, editable copy, outstanding questions and an offline tool to recalculate price replies from the approved price list. The brand keeps its contacts and decides what to send.

Why bring in the agency

If your team already has verified replies, keep them: €0 for CP360. If a retailer only needs its template, the €1,420 matrix is enough. The €1,420 handover prepares several replies from the requests you received.

Handover and decision

Handover: request matrix, editable replies and the existing approved selection. Jérémie organises fact approval and owns corrections. The brand retains stock decisions, commercial terms and sending.
